At least ten people sustained injury when security forces sprang upon a huge crowd in Sonitpur district on Wednesday. The incident that sends shockwaves across the state on the eve of the bhogali bihu took place in Rongapara when local residents in large number thronged the police station in the morning demanding immediate release of a youth who was allegedly arrested as NDFB-S rebel during the ongoing joint operation.

Senior police official tried to quell the protesters who refused to bend and struck to the demand. Police resorted to lathicharge and blank firing following an altercation. All the injured were rushed to the hospital. Several parties, organizations and individuals have vehemently condemned the lathicharge on the innocent protesters.
