Altogether 11 candidates today filed nominations for the state \(/taxonomy/term/2332\) assembly election in Udalguri \(/taxonomy/term/113\) on Thursday. Among them were Kamali Rani Basumatari , sitting BPF MLA of Panery,sitting BPF MLA Rihon Daimari of Udalguri \(/taxonomy/term/113\), and Charan Boro BPF candidate for Mazbat . It was the second day of submitting nomination papers which began from March 17.

Congress (/taxonomy/term/90) candidates Jaman Singh Brahma and Durga Das (/taxonomy/term/1926) Boro filled nominations for Udalguri (/taxonomy/term/113) and Panery respectively. While newly floated UPP candidates Dilip Boro for Udalguri (/taxonomy/term/113), Nanda Lal Boro for Panery, Rabindra Basumatari for Mazbat also filled their nominations.

All the candidates were accompanied by large number of their workers (/taxonomy/term/2406) and supporters from their party offices and marched down to the office of the Zila Parishad. SUCI candidate Charnalata Chaliha and two independent candidates Dinanath Das (/taxonomy/term/1926) and Prabat Panika all of them filled nominations for Panery.

Party workers (/taxonomy/term/2406) and supporters of the candidates carried party flags and raised slogans in support of the declared objectives of their parties and candidates. It was a colourful sight as (/taxonomy/term/2291) the procession moved through the streets. People on the way watched with curiosity and interest as (/taxonomy/term/2291) the processions moved on. It was no doubt (/taxonomy/term/2213) like a fun fare. With hardly more than two weeks left for the polling, the heat and dust generally seen during the elections was seen.
