Altogether 12,969 voters are identified as 'D'-Voters out of 15, 03,190 voters in the No.5 Kokrajhar Lok Sabha constituency.

Nitin Khade, Kokrajhar Deputy Commissioner and Returning Officer while speaking reporters on Saturday said there are altogether 15, 03,190 voters of which 12,969 voters are identified as 'D'-Voters in all 10 LACs under Kokrajhar HPC. He has appealed the voters whose Electoral Photo Identity Card (EPIC) were found mistakes to take other supporting documents to cast their votes during election.

Khade said that there are mistakes in the Electoral Photo Identity Card (EPIC) for which the voters should not be confused about their franchise. He urged the voters to take supporting documents like Passport, Driving License, Service

I-card with photo, Bank and Post Office pass book, Pan Card, NREGA Job Card, Pension Document with photo, Smart Card, Adhar Card, etc.

He also said that the Booth Level Officer (BLO) will distribute Photo Voter's slip to the voters in their respective households.

Moreover, he said that there will be a felicitation centre for distribution of Photo Voters Slip at the time of election near the polling centre.

Khade appealed the voters to take Photo Voter's Slip along with them while exercising their franchise.
