Two NDFB cadres were apprehended by security forces and seized arms from their possession in Assam-Meghalaya border near Dudhnoi in Goalpara district in the wee hours of Saturday. According to Dudhnoi police, after receiving an information, the ninth sikhli regiment of Indian Army of Damra launched an operation at Bandarshi village in Assam-Meghalaya border where the two NDFB cadres were held. One countrymade AK47 rifle, one handmade SBBL gun and five rounds of ammunition were recovered from them. It may be noted here that Dudhnoi police and army nabbed four NDFB cadres from Dudhnoi area on Tuesday last and recovered arms from them.
