Two ULFA cadres and an Army captain died at a fierce encounter at the Meshakhi forest area in upper Assam's Tinsukia district on Sunday. According to information, the encounter is still going on and the Army is cordoning off the entire area. The two dread ULFA leaders have been identified as Chandan Dohutia, a major sergeant and corporal Tutu Moran. The army captain who also died at the encounter is H Chaudhory who received the President's medal for his outstanding service on Saturday's Republic Day. The crackdown began in the morning. Details are awaited.
