The seven deceased who died in the chopper crash in Arunachal Pradesh were army personnel when the helicopter carrying them crash landed on Thursday sending a shockwave across the country.

The incident took place at a remote place near Tawang early in the morning when the team was on a routine sortie to Tawang bordering China.

Arunachal Pradesh has been witnessing a few such chopper crashes for the last ten years and the victims include, Dorjee Khandu, the chief minister. Two years back, a deputy commissioner died in chopper crash.
