Kalaigaon Anchalik Committee, Ranipukhuri Anchalik Committee, Mudwibari and Bhakatpara Anchalik committee of All Assam Minority Students' Union (AAMSU (/taxonomy/term/1900)) staged a three-hour dharna in front of Kalaigaon Police Station on Wednesday in protest against (/taxonomy/term/1929) teer gambling and sale of country-made liquor.

Mainul Islam, general secretary of Udalguri (/taxonomy/term/113) AAMSU (/taxonomy/term/1900), alleged that anti-social activities like teer gambling was destroying the youths of Kalaigaon. Gambling had polluted the social environment of the area. Kalaigaon AAMSU (/taxonomy/term/1900) along with other several organizations had protested against (/taxonomy/term/1929) this earlier but teer gambling had continued in Kalaigaon area despite these protests.

The protesters alleged that people running the gambling business were hands-in-glove with the local police. So the Kalaigaon AAMSU (/taxonomy/term/1900) staged a dharna from (/taxonomy/term/2005)10 (/taxonomy/term/2005) am to 1 pm on Wednesday to demand concrete action to stop (/taxonomy/term/2235) gambling in the area.

More than 200 protesters took part in this programme. Abdul Khalek and Mafijur Rahman were present in this dharna. They submitted a memorandum to the Circle Officer of Kalaigaon Revenue Circle.
