The All Assam Students' Union (/taxonomy/term/1842) (AASU) is all set to hit the streets again if the Centre fails to scrap the move for Indian citizenship (/taxonomy/term/2368) to the Hindu Bangladeshi immigrants.

The state (/taxonomy/term/2332)'s influential student (/taxonomy/term/2404) organization, in a statement made it plain and simple that never it would allow the immigrants who came to Assam after March 24, 1971 to remain in the state (/taxonomy/term/2332). AASU has threatened to launch a statewide massive movement to detect and deport the immigrants in question.

According to AASU, the Centre's move is quite contrary to the Assam Accord (/taxonomy/term/1884) which is not acceptable under any circumstance.
