The All Assam Students Union threatens to call 100 hour statewide bandh (/taxonomy/term/100) alleging the failure (/taxonomy/term/1952) to arrest (/taxonomy/term/1733) Soobodh Biswas, who took the alleged role in the Silapothar incident.

Talking to Assam Times, AASU leaders (/taxonomy/term/2082) said that they are finalizing the bandh (/taxonomy/term/100) call in a day or two to mount pressure on the government to nab Biswas who is on the run.

“We served 12 hour ultimatum which expired with utter failure (/taxonomy/term/1952). He is still remaining untouched. We won’t allow it to happen,” said an AASU leader (/taxonomy/term/1820) in Dhemaji.

Another local AASU leader (/taxonomy/term/1820) said,” only issuing a public appeal to help arrest (/taxonomy/term/1733) this culprit, police cant wash their hands off. He must be arrested. Otherwise, we are taking more and more extreme step.”

Seven days passed since Biswas incited the clash where a local AASU office was ransaked. The main culprit is still on the run.
