Aayushi Nimodia of Bokakhat has been invited by the visiting President Pratibha Patil. Ayushi met the President at Guwahati recently on her visit to Assam few days back.

The reason for this that Aayushi sent a letter with these points, which impressed the President:

1. To solve the problem of flood during the rainy season and to protect soil erosion caused by the mighty river to the Kaziranga National Park by taking appropriate measures at war-footing.
2. To establish a Woman's University in Assam.
3. To arrange protection for all people to attend public functions like Independence Day.

We wish Aayushi all the success :)
