Guwahati: Ending a high voltage drama, Kumar Sanjit Krishna has surrendered before the authorities 24 hours after the senior police officer went missing to avert arrest in connection with the recent police recruitment scam.

Sanjit Krishna, the younger brother of Chief secretary Kumar Sanjay Krishna reached DGP office at 11.30 in the morning and surrendered.

The state home department gave CID the go ahead to nab the police officer who was recently transferred to Barpeta. But by evening the senior police officer has gone missing.

According to reports, brokers Rubul Hazarika and Dibon Deka, who were arrested in this connection claimed to have struck a huge deal with Sanjit Krishna two days before the interview where the question papers were unpacked to be screenshot. The particular deal was made for Rs 40 lakh.
