

Assam Times

assamtimes.org

LATEST NEWS

ABSU president urges to conserve indigenous culture

AT News · 16:41, 31 Mar 2017 · 7335 views · 1 min read

The President (/taxonomy/term/2432) of the All Bodo Students Union(ABSU) Promod Boro has congratulated to the Namami Brahmaputra (/taxonomy/term/2226) festival,which is starting from Friday across the state (/taxonomy/term/2332) said that the festival should not be over (/taxonomy/term/2166) design over (/taxonomy/term/2166) indigenous (/taxonomy/term/2124) culture and tradition in the state (/taxonomy/term/2332) of Assam.

He said that the first ever River festival in Assam is welcome,but do not frame our traditional cultural tradition which is our identity and unity among different community (/taxonomy/term/2084) and languages in the state (/taxonomy/term/2332)'Boro said.He has urged festival organiser and government to conserve our indigenous (/taxonomy/term/2124) culture and tradition in the state (/taxonomy/term/2332).

On the recent red handed arrest (/taxonomy/term/1733) of Irrigation Secretary at Assam Assembly Secretariat, Boro demanded strong inquiry into alleged huge anomalies over (/taxonomy/term/2166) Irrigation department,besides involved concern minister.He said that corruption situation in the state (/taxonomy/term/2332) should be eliminate and bring healthy state (/taxonomy/term/2332) with strong measures from government against (/taxonomy/term/1929) corruptions across the state (/taxonomy/term/2332).

AT News

Assam Times Staff. editor@assamtimes.org

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/absu-president-urges-to-conserve-indigenous-culture-18766> |
Published: 31 March 2017 | © 2026 Assam Times