Protest continued in Lower Assam (/taxonomy/term/548) as well in the state against killing (/taxonomy/term/877) of Priya Basumatary, a Class X student by NDFB(S). Hundreds of students, activists and commoners participated in silent protests in the twin districts of Kokrajhar (/taxonomy/term/404) and Chirang today (/taxonomy/term/443). The All Bodo (/taxonomy/term/656) Students (/taxonomy/term/1361)' Union (ABSU (/taxonomy/term/561)), Chirang District Committee staged a silent rally covering their mouths with black cloth pieces at Kajalgaon while commoners and civic organizations brought out a peace rally at Runikata in protest (/taxonomy/term/412) against the killing (/taxonomy/term/877) of Priya Basumatary at Dwimuguri on Wednesday (/taxonomy/term/1039) last. ABSU (/taxonomy/term/561) meanwhile termed the killing (/taxonomy/term/877) as inhuman and said that it occurred due to security lapse of the government.

ABSU (/taxonomy/term/561) President Promod Boro demanded strict steps against militants in the state. The ABSU (/taxonomy/term/561) Kokrajhar (/taxonomy/term/404) District Committee also carried out a candle light rally this evening in Kokrajhar (/taxonomy/term/404) town in protest (/taxonomy/term/412) against the killing (/taxonomy/term/877) of Priya Basumatary. The rally commenced from the office of the ABSU (/taxonomy/term/561) Kokrajhar (/taxonomy/term/404) Regional office along JD Road (/taxonomy/term/718) and proceeded through the main town before it dispersed.
