

LATEST NEWS

ACS officer surrenders in APSC scam

AT News · 13:24, 19 Dec 2017 · 7952 views · 1 min read

GUWAHATI: Finally Nishamoni Deka surrendered on Tuesday two months after the accused ACS officer in APSC scam went underground.

Deka surrendered before the police at Special Branch Headquarters in Guwahati in the morning immediately to be arrested by the special operation unit of Dibrugarh police set up to probe the scam.

Deka surrendered before the police a day after the Gauhati High Court declined her anticipatory bail plea.

The Supreme Court has already rejected the plea. Deka is being produced before a special court in Guwahati seeking police remand.

She is the last ACS officer to be arrested in this connection. Twenty four others have been hailed after the end of 14 days police custody.

AT News

Assam Times Staff. editor@assamtimes.org