Kokrajhar: National \(/taxonomy/term/1874\) Democrtaic Front of Boroland-Progressive(NDFB-P) has strongly criticized Kiren Rijiju two days after the Union minister of home spoke of differences among the surrendered rebels.

In an exclusive interview to www.assamtimes.org (<http://www.assamtimes.org/>), NDFB(P) general secretary Govinda Basumatary denied any differences within the outfit saying that they are very much united in terms of demands (</taxonomy/term/2467>) and issues.

He said, “Rijiju said that the peace talks with ULFA (</taxonomy/term/124>) is going on in right direction. But NDFB is divided in terms of demands (</taxonomy/term/2467>) which is totally false and fabricated. How ULFA (</taxonomy/term/124>) is united since the independent faction is still active.”

Basumatary claimed, “our demands (</taxonomy/term/2467>) and issues are still intact even after we have some differences. Rijiju tells lie and he is not capable of holding peace talks with the rebels in the region.”
