AGP is holding its crucial general council meeting on Friday to chalk out the strategy for the upcoming Lok Sabha polls.

Resentment among a section of senior party leaders is expected to dominate the meeting at Ambari chaired by president Prafulla Kumar Mahanta.

Notably, a circle of senior party leaders have joined BJP in the run up to the Lok Sabha polls.

Sitting MP Joseph Toppo has resigned from the party saying that he was shocked to have learnt that he won't get ticket this time.
