

LATEST NEWS

AGP still opposed to citizenship amendment

AT News · 09:37, 31 Aug 2017 · 8717 views · 1 min read

The Asom Gana Parishad, a vital constituent of the BJP-led government in Assam has reiterated it's opposition to the Citizenship (Amendment) Bill, 2016.

Thr regional party made its position clear when a delegation met Union home minister Rajnath Singh in New Delhi (/taxonomy/term/1868) on Wednesday. Led by party president Atul Bora, thr delegation told Singh not to proceed with this deal (/taxonomy/term/1922).

The party leaders (/taxonomy/term/2082) stressed immediate implementation of the Assam Accord, 1985 in letter and spirit by detecting and deporting the Bangladeshi immigrants who came to settle in the state (/taxonomy/term/2332) after the cut off date.

The delegation met President (/taxonomy/term/2432) of India (/taxonomy/term/2367) reiterating the demands (/taxonomy/term/2467) amid speculation of a widening differences with BJP over (/taxonomy/term/2166) the controversial bill which if made an Act will enable the Hindu illegal settlers to get a refugee status across the country.

AT News

Assam Times Staff. editor@assamtimes.org

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/agp-still-opposed-to-citizenship-amendment-19754> | Published: 31 August 2017 | © 2026 Assam Times