The agitation for the proposed AIIMS at Raha is set to take a violent turn if the local organizations here are to be believed.

Noted citizens and many local organizations here at a meeting decided to mount more pressure on the Government.

Speakers in the meeting threatened to go to any extent if their demand is not properly looked into where the Government would have to shoulder the responsibility.

They said that they were all prepared to face any eventuality for the proposed premier hospital.

The meeting further decided to take resort to stage rail and road blockade very soon if the Government refuses to listen to them.
