Stunned by the sensational allegation of deal with Congress vice president in the time of Rajya Sabha polls, AIUDF president Badaruddin Ajmal threatens legal action against his party legislator Aatur Rahmanmajhar Bhuyan.

Talking to reporters in Dispur on Monday night, Ajmal said that the allegations of bribery deal with Rahul Gandhi is completely baseless and that he was not a bagger to have struck such deal.

He said he would be served showcause notice to substantiate his allegations. The clarification came several hours after Majjarbhuyan disclosed that Ajmal received money in cash from Rahul Gandhi through Mizoram Chief Minister.
