Guwahati : AJP and Raijor Dal will fight the upcoming assembly polls jointly. This was what the leaders of both the regional parties told media in Guwahati on Friday.

AJP president and Raijor Dal leader Bhaskar De Saikia said that they would maintain equidistance with AIUDEF, Congress and BJP.

They further said that never they would have any patch up with any national party and that they would keep doors open for the regional parties.

Lyrinjyoti Gogoi and Jagadish Bhuyan called on Rajior Dal president Akhil Gogoi at GMCH on Thursday where both the new regional parties struck deal.
