Amid a terror shadow in the run up to the Independence Day celebrations, the Asom Jatiyatabadi Yuva Chatra Parishad (AJYCP \(/taxonomy/term/1764\)) has condemned the incident of gory attack on the common people in Tinsukia \(/taxonomy/term/84\) district on Friday.

In a statement issued here on Saturday, AJYCP \(/taxonomy/term/1764\) General Secretary Palash Changmai \(/taxonomy/term/2188\) said that only the common people have been bearing the brunt of the decade old armed conflict. He said, "armed attack on the innocent people never brings any solution to a decade old conflict. Counter insurgency operation alone is not the key to resolve the decade old problem."

Changmai \(/taxonomy/term/2188\) squarely blamed the Government for the reign of terror in Tinsukia \(/taxonomy/term/84\) saying that it failed to put the security forces on alert \(/taxonomy/term/1634\) even after the Balajan incident where 14 people were killed in militant attack at an open market.

AJYCP \(/taxonomy/term/1764\) further urged the government and the rebel outfits to come forward for talks to help the state \(/taxonomy/term/2332\) restore an era of permanent peace in the state \(/taxonomy/term/2332\).
