The Dibrugarh police have arrested Akhil Gogoi on Wednesday a day after the RTI (/taxonomy/term/1927) activist announced his preparedness to take up arms to safeguard the interest of the people.

A team of Dibrugarh police rushed to Golaghat town in the evening and arrested the leader \(/taxonomy/term/1820\) from his own residence. According to police, they registered a case against Gogoi tried to fuel \(/taxonomy/term/2353\) anti national activities urging them to remain prepared to take up arms as he was addressing a huge rally near the town.

A police team has been interrogating Gogoi in Dibrugarh and he would be produced before a lower court, said a senior police official adding that they formally lodged the complaint confirming Gogoi's speech.

Many parties, organizations and individuals have strongly condemned the arrest of the leader \(/taxonomy/term/1820\) saying that the government is quite intolerant.
