After a long year scattered working in the students union, the All Koch Rajbongsi Students Union (AKRSU) both faction Hiteswar Barman and Biswajit Ray expressed their willingness to be reunification to the greater interest of the community.

Barman expressed his welcome gesture as Biswajit Ray had recently openly revealed to take his retirement from the students union and wished a grand reunification to meet a strong union of the community. He said that his faction student union was always ready to reunion and to lead the community to unite the community of which why the students union had unification in 2010, but later Biswajit Ray scattered and self held president of his faction.

'There would be no hesitation to reunion if Ray wants to do so for the greater interest of the community', told Barman.

On the agitation to the demand of ST status, Barman has slammed BJP led NDA govt that centre has been denieying their demands as BJP had promised to grant ST status to the community. He has warned for strong mass agitation from November next if their demands are not meet in early manner.

Further Barman reacted over the remarks raised from Prithibi Narayan Dev, who had been changed his identity to so called Royal Union of Mech Kingdom from Royal Union of Koch Kingdom. Barman termed Primthibi as immature leader, was mislead by so called leaders to create confusion among common masses in the community.

He has claimed that Koch Rajbongsi community was not belonged to Mech clan, so remarks from Primthibi was not accepted.
