Surface communication has been remaining heavily disrupted along the 31C national highway from Thursday following the 100-hour economic blockade called by All Koch Rajbongshi Students' Union-Pradeep Ray faction demanding Scheduled Tribe (ST \(/taxonomy/term/1997\)) status to the Koch Rajbongshis and reconstruction of Kamatapur state \(/taxonomy/term/2332\).

Hundreds of vehicles have been remaining stranded at various places along the 31C national highways in lower Assam districts, included BTAD areas under of the impact of the 100-hour blockade.

Hundreds of students staged dharna in Kashikotra in Chirang district raising banners and placards and shouting slogans demanding ST <sup>(/taxonomy/term/1997)</sup> status to the Koch Rajbongshis and Kamatapur statehood.

The AKRSU slammed the government for not taking stern measure to solve the demand and issues of the Koch Rajbongshis.
