

LATEST NEWS

All out against Centre

AT News · 13:02, 30 Jul 2016 | Updated 10:50, 31 Jul 2016 · 7305 views · 1 min read

A huge convention in Guwahati on Saturday has vehemently opposed the Centre’s move to accord refugee status to the neighbouring Hindu nationals fearing that the north eastern state (/taxonomy/term/2332) would have to bear the brunt.

Speakers after speakers in the AJYCP (/taxonomy/term/1764)-sponsored day long summit (/taxonomy/term/1971) stressed a slew of initiatives to go all out against (/taxonomy/term/1929) the Centre’s policy (/taxonomy/term/2366) saying that nobody would be allowed to turn Assam into a dustbin.

They further have strongly opposed the move to auction 12 marginal oilfields to the private players saying that the Centre would not be allowed to proceed with the deal (/taxonomy/term/1922).

Further, the speakers unanimously have asked the Centre to announce Assam flood and erosion as (/taxonomy/term/2291) a national calamity alleging despite repeated memorandum and assurance the perennial problems have been allowed to crush Assam and its economy.

AJYCP (/taxonomy/term/1764) president Biraj Kumar Talukdar presided over (/taxonomy/term/2166) the convention attended by ULFA (/taxonomy/term/124) chairman Arabinda Rajkhowa (/taxonomy/term/2396), former Cotton College principal Udayaditya Bharali, AASU adviser Dr Samujjal Bhattacharya, AASU General Secretary Lurinjyoti Gogoi, Tiwa (/taxonomy/term/1788) Students Union leaders (/taxonomy/term/2082), Ahom Sena leaders (/taxonomy/term/2082).

AT News

Assam Times Staff. editor@assamtimes.org

---

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/all-out-against-centre-17390> | Published: 30 July 2016 | © 2026 Assam Times