The pro talk faction of ULFA is evincing its keen interest to guard the burning border areas in Charaipung. Leaders of the ULFA faction now under unilateral ceasefire Mrinal Hazarika told reporters on Thursday in Charaipung that they have enough strength to counter the armed miscreants who have been fomenting trouble from across the inter-state border. Hazarika said they have already conveyed the message to Dispur. Hazarika was leading a team to the spot armed miscreants backed by NSCN(IM) have been unleashing terror by burning several houses and vandalizing a police station during the last couple of days.
