Ananya Saikia of Reliance College Junior has brought glory to Golaghat by emerging as a state topper in the Higher Secondary (Arts) examination results declared today. Ananya the daughter of teacher parents Ratneswar Saikia and Debojani Barua has secured a total of 469 marks. She has also secured highest mark (100%) in Economics.

Debojit Dutta, the principal of the college said that the college has been able to secure a position since the last ten years of its inception and they had been expecting Ananya to get a rank in the HS final examination.

“I would like to pursue financial marketing and be a social entrepreneur in the future. I was hopeful of getting a rank but the 1st position came as a pleasant surprise.” Ananya told Assam Times. She owes her credit to her parents her teachers and to god.
