

LATEST NEWS

Another arrest in Nagaon incident

AT News · 22:16, 24 Aug 2017 | Updated 22:28, 24 Aug 2017 · 11728 views · 1 min read

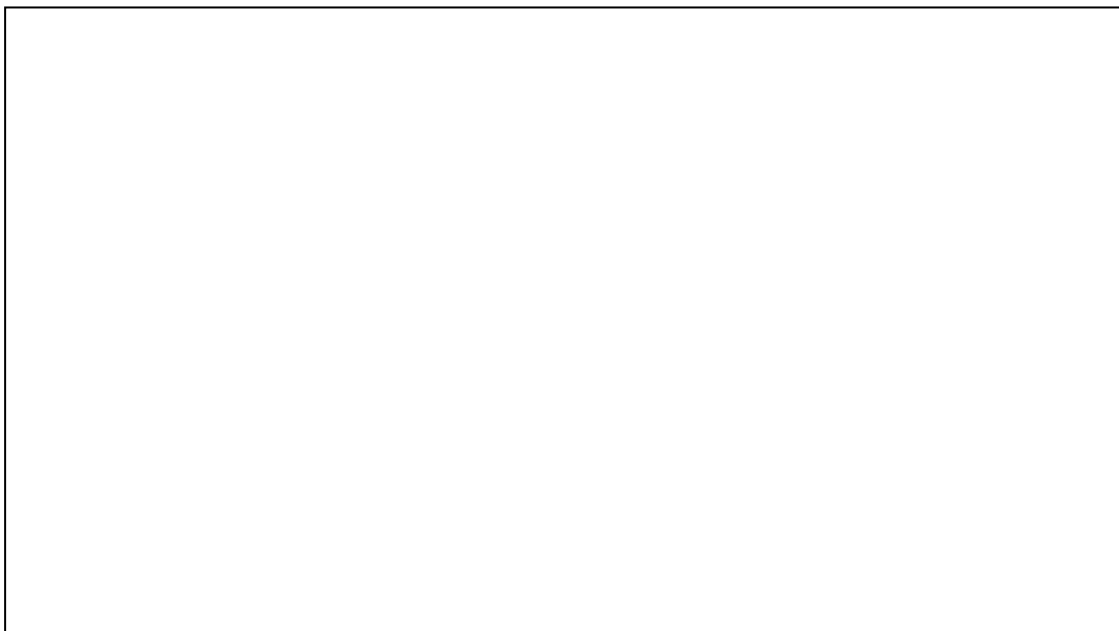

The Nagaon police have arrested yet another person in connection with Wednesday incident where traders assaulted a group (/taxonomy/term/2415) of former ULFA (/taxonomy/term/124) rebel as they were raising fund to feed the flood hit.

Popularly known as Mithu, he was on the run as police arrested him on Thursday afternoon. The trader hired him along with three others whom police arrested hours after the incident.

As police took him to the Nagaon police headquarters, over (/taxonomy/term/2166) 200 youths thronged in front of asking police to hand over (/taxonomy/term/2166) Mithu to the crowd. A section of yarn youths tried to forcibly enter into the police station forcing the police to close the main gate.

Interrogation is going on. All they would be produced before the court on Friday.

AT News

Assam Times Staff. editor@assamtimes.org

---

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/another-arrest-in-nagaon-incident-19699> | Published: 24 August 2017 |
© 2026 Assam Times