The ASDC Dima Hasao District Committee condemned the recent violence in Dima Hasao district, criticizing the Govt that it was due to Govt's lack of adequate sincerity in dealing with such a law and order situation of Dima Hasao district that miscreants have been facilitated to strike at the vulnerable areas and to commit any acts of violence in the district. The ASDC , therefore, urge both the Central Govt and the State Govt to be more vigilant and more sincere in tackling the law and order situation in the district so that such happening of setting fire to houses, killing and other acts of violence do not recur in Dima Hasao district. The ASDC at the same time, appeal to all the people of Dima Hasao district to remain calm and maintain peace, harmony and brotherhood in the district.
