The All Assam Students Union has blasted political clique in Assam for not getting the Assam Accord implemented in toto. This has forced the students body to release a white paper on the implementation of the Accord 25 years later on Friday. The organisation leaders are all set to stage a hunger strike in Guwahati from 6 in the morning on Saturday till the unfurling of the national tricolour on Sunday morning.

Talking to reporters, AASU leaders said they would organise sit-in-Satyagraha in Guwahati demanding total implementation of the Assam Accord.They further demanded apology from apology for thier failure.
