As (/taxonomy/term/2291) the nation pays homage to Netaji (/taxonomy/term/2089) Subhash Chandra Bose on his 121st birth (/taxonomy/term/2090) anniversary (/taxonomy/term/2091) on 23 January, Assam Governor (/taxonomy/term/2435) Banwarilal Purohit led the people of the State in paying rich tributes to the patriot of patriots at a function held in the city (/taxonomy/term/1957).

Governor (/taxonomy/term/2435) Purohit while paying rich tributes to the great hero commented that ‘in the parlance of independence struggle Netaji (/taxonomy/term/2089) would always be remembered with highest degree of reverence for his immense contributions to the nation’.

“Netaji (/taxonomy/term/2089)’s sacrifice for the freedom of the country was colossal. He is a leader

(/taxonomy/term/1820)

personified with unparalleled courage and charisma,” said the Governor

(/taxonomy/term/2435).

Synchronising with the programme, Netaji (/taxonomy/term/2089) Garima awards were presented to veteran singer Sudakshina Sharma and media personality Nava Thakuria. Guwahati mayor Mrigen Sarania, East Guwahati legislator Siddhartha Bhattacharjee, former legislator Robin (/taxonomy/term/2230) Bordoloi, Padmashree Ajay Dutta also spoke on the occasion.

Accepting the award, journalist Thakuria commented that the essence of Netaji (/taxonomy/term/2089) would remain an integral part of Indian nationalism. He however regretted that often a politician of Uttar Pradesh is termed as (/taxonomy/term/2291) Netaji (/taxonomy/term/2089), which should be vehemently opposed. The title Netaji (/taxonomy/term/2089), like Bapuji for Mahatma Gandhi (/taxonomy/term/1710), should not be spared with anybody in the world. He also urged New Delhi (/taxonomy/term/1868) to pursue with the Myanmar (/taxonomy/term/2252) government to preserve all memorials related to Netaji (/taxonomy/term/2089) and Indian National (/taxonomy/term/1874) Army in that country.
