A protest meeting organised by Journalists' Protection Committee Assam at Guwahati Press Club today urged the authority to nab the culprits involved in the assassination of Raihanul Naium, a reporter of Gana Chabuk, in Dhubri on September 8 evening. The meeting also resolved to organise a State wide protest demonstration on September 16 next. Various speakers in the meeting also expressed their concern at the conspiracy, hatched by some anti-social elements to divide the journalist community of Assam on religious bases, and appealed every one to remain alert against such forces.
