Assam Rifles unit at Haflong under aegis of Haflong based Assam Rifles Sector under took the noble cause of organising “Health Camp” at village Ditokcherra and neighboring places on September with the assistance of Holy Spirit Hospital, Haflong. The aim of this health camp was to provide free medical checkup and distribution of essential medicines to the villagers. 342 numbers of patients attended the medical camp and were benefited.

The overwhelming response by the locals for the health camp was indicative of its grand success. Such gesture by Assam Rifles under its civic action programmes has spread goodwill in the local people and strengthened the bond between security forces and civil population in the Dima Hasao District.
