In a historic move, the Assam government on Friday moved s bill in the legislative assembly to ensure proper care for the elders.

Moving the Bill on the floor senior minister Himanta Biswa Sarma said the bill if turned into an Act would make it mandatory for all government employees to ensure proper care for their parents.

“The government would not tolerate negligence to the parents of an employees. A govt employee will have to face action “ said Sarma.

Assam is the first state (</taxonomy/term/2332>) to have moved such bill aiming at enduring care for the elders.
