GUWAHATI, October 12, 2026 — The Assamese short film Nirvaana, the third production of Heartbeat Production, was released on October 9 at Aideo Cinema Hall in Panjabari, Guwahati.

Popular Assamese actor Jatin Bora formally inaugurated the film, while actress Sagarika Goswami lit the ceremonial lamp to mark the beginning of the event. The launch and special screening were attended by the cast and crew, media representatives and several personalities from Assam's cultural sphere.

The 55-minute film has been written by actress Rujula Das, who has also penned its screenplay and dialogues and plays the central character. It is directed by National Award-winning filmmaker Kripal Kalita and produced by Basanta Kumar Das.

Nirvaana explores the contemporary challenges of psychological stress and the journey towards emotional healing. The film features a mix of experienced actors and emerging artistes, including Rujula Das, Champak Sharma, Mallika Sharma, Ruma Kalita, Dikshit Barman, Jishnu, Dibya Pratim Bhagawati, Raj Kulanandan Saikia, Jyotishman Saikia, Violina Deka, Harshil Kalita, Kiara Sharma Das and Madhusmita Kalita Pathak, among others.

The film also features two songs performed by emerging singer Shreya Kashyap. One of the songs has lyrics by Binisha Devi, while Rujula Das has composed the music and tune.

The screening and launch brought together the film's cast, crew and well-wishers, marking the latest venture by Heartbeat Production in Assamese short-film making.
