The Bengaluru police on Thursday have held three youths a day after they allegedly attacked a Manipur (/taxonomy/term/64) student on the road on Wednesday even as the student is still undergoing treatment at a local nursing home.

Police picked up the trio acting on the complaint filed after the incident where the goons attacked the student and branded him as a Chinese national on Wednesday night.

According to allegations, a three member group of miscreants attacked the student with sharp weapon from behind on the road at night. He further came to hear some comments against the north east people. Later he was rushed to a local nursing home in the city where he is undergoing treatment.

The incident took place hours before the body of a Manipur (/taxonomy/term/64) researcher was found (/taxonomy/term/1802) inside his house at Kotla area in New Delhi (/taxonomy/term/1868) on Wednesday.
