Bangladesh High Commissioner to India Tariq Karim on Wednesday praised Assam Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi for efficiently tackling the insurgency menace within a brief spell of time.

Karim, who called on the Chief Minister at his residence in Guwahati in the morning, also praised him for ensuring rapid development of the state. He said that the state has improved on its law and order front. They discussed several issues and hoped that there would be improved ties between the two neighbours. They further held discussions on ways to increase cooperation in the field of agriculture and allied sectors, trade and explore the commercial potential of jute industry, cement and power generation for the development of both Assam and Bangladesh.
