Normal life in Sivasagar has been thrown out of gear under the impact of the 24-hour bandh call by AATASU on Saturday. Roads across the district wore deserted look, schools and colleges, shops and markets remained closed under the impact of the bandh. Government offices and banks witnessed thin attendance. The All Assam Tai Ahom Students union called for the 24 hour bandh in protest against the killing of Debojeet Lahon by a gang of miscreants in Sivasagar on Thursday.
