Bangladesh Rifles handed over three members of the National Democratic Front of Bodoland (NDFB) and one smuggler to Border Security Force at Dalu in West Garo Hills district of Meghalaya on 12-07-08.

Later the persons are being handed to the Assam Police by the BSF Personnels.

Remarkably, BSF sources said this is the first time the BDR has taken such step and that the neighbouring country had been earlier denying the presence of Indian insurgents in its territory.
