

Bangladeshis outnumber in 8 Districts

Comments 3

Nagendra Sarma 8 August 2008 13317 views

The National Vice President of BJP, Bijaya Chakravarty while demanding the arrest of AAMSU leaders who criticized the observation of the honourable High court in regards to threat to Assam posed by the illegal Bangladeshis revealed that the increasing number of illegal immigrants in the eight districts of Assam had outnumbered the local people in the every field of life and apprehended of spreading this phenomenon to more districts of the state if this poisonous bud is not crushed before it got bloomed. BJP leader Mrs Chakravarty appreciated the Gauhati High Court's observation and said that calling it a political statement was unfortunate and a clear case of contempt of court and also a blow to our national respect. Terming it a great crime against the constitution of India the BJP leader strongly urged upon the Government to book such anti-national elements under the law of the land. Although the IMDT is scraped but unfortunately it has been still there in the state and indirectly followed to give safeguard to the illegal immigrants who posed a threat the population pattern of Assam, Mrs Chakravarty added.

Nagendra Sarma

BY NAGENDRA SARMA

Dr Fatik Gogoi felicitated and conferred 'Visistha Samaj Sevak;

Cross firing between armed Nagas and Security forces

Assam PMGSY to complete by March 31

NSCN giving arms training to ANLA

The First Private University in Assam coming up

ON THIS DAY

Ao and Latour

AJP, Rajjor Dal likely to have poll deal

Why the economy going down

Noted academician Karendra Nath Brahma passes away

Silchar buckles up to celebrate International day for Disaster Reduction
