The entrance gate of an ancient temple (/taxonomy/term/1876) was lost partially damaged when a moderate earthquake jolted Basugaon along with other parts of lower Assam.

One (/taxonomy/term/2177) of the stone made lions installed at the entrance gate of the Gauri temple (/taxonomy/term/1876) collapsed under the impact of the moderate earthquake on Sunday.

Local residents came out in large numbers to escape the death when the building were shaking. Thousands of local people went to the temple (/taxonomy/term/1876) premises to see the damaged walls.
