Kokrajhar police make it plain and simple that they would strictly deal with the arms smugglers who have been mongering trouble in BTAD areas for the last couple of years.

Talking to reporters in Kokrajhar after the encounter at Kamalachara Patalpuri area in the afternoon, superintendent of police Sunil Kumar said that the offensive against these elements would continue in the entire district.

Kumar confirmed that the deceased in the encounter Usuf Ali who hailed from Duramari was an arms smuggler. He further hoped that they would be able to extract more information on arms smuggler in the interrogation of Sohrab Ali who has undergoing treatment at the Rupnath Brahma Civil Hospital after he sustained bullet injury in the encounter.
