Bihu dance (/taxonomy/term/2445) in Assam is set to dazzle in the Republic Day celebrations in New Delhi (/taxonomy/term/1868). The state (/taxonomy/term/2332)'s tableau will showcase the age old Assamese (/taxonomy/term/2159) Bihu dance (/taxonomy/term/2445) before lakhs of people in the national capital.

Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi (/taxonomy/term/2150) on Tuesday requested defence minister Manohar Parrikar to give the state (/taxonomy/term/2332) an opportunity to display its tableau in the forthcoming Republic Day celebrations.

According to Gogoi, a tableau from Assam in the Republic Day parade will help enhance the sense of patriotism amongst the people and instill a feeling of nationalism amongst the misguided youth of the state (/taxonomy/term/2332).

Meanwhile, the Centre's Expert Committee for Selection of Tableau has shortlisted the design to showcase Bihu dance (/taxonomy/term/2445) which is likely to be finalised in a day or two.

The Assam government submitted four designs for the state (/taxonomy/term/2332) tableau, out of which the design showcasing the Bihu dance (/taxonomy/term/2445) was shortlisted by the Expert Committee.

Notably, a section of media in Assam has been blaming state (/taxonomy/term/2332) and Centre saying that the state (/taxonomy/term/2332) will miss (/taxonomy/term/2307) its tableau in the Republic Day function in the capital.
