In a heartwarming finale that captivated audiences across the country, 8-year-old dance sensation Binita Chetry has been crowned the winner of Dance Ikon Season 2, the hit reality dance show streaming on Aha. Representing Karbi Anglong, Assam, Binita wowed the nation with her powerful performances, ultimately securing nearly 9 lakh votes to clinch the coveted title.

The young prodigy's rise to fame has been nothing short of meteoric. Earlier this year, her spellbinding act on Britain's Got Talent went viral, amassing over 100 million views across social media platforms and drawing international acclaim. That global spotlight helped elevate her journey on Dance Ikon, where her artistry and emotive storytelling became fan favorites week after week.

Among her many admirers is Assam Chief Minister Dr. Himanta Biswa Sarma, who hailed her victory as "a proud moment for Assam" and called her "a rising star who exemplifies the incredible talent emerging from our state."

Following her win, a beaming Binita said, "This journey has been like a dream come true. I sincerely thank everyone who supported me—especially the viewers who believed in me and voted for me. Because of your love, I received nearly 900,000 votes—a number I will cherish forever."

From breathtaking classical routines to contemporary showstoppers, Binita consistently amazed the judges and audience alike with her versatility, stage presence, and emotional depth—traits far beyond her years. Each of her performances sparked online buzz, making her a trending topic throughout the season.

Her victory is being celebrated across Assam, especially in Karbi Anglong, where communities came together to cheer on their hometown hero. Her mentors and family have credited her success to a combination of relentless hard work, deep-rooted cultural pride, and an unshakable spirit.

With this historic win, Binita Chetry has carved a unique place in the hearts of millions. As she begins the next chapter of her artistic journey, she stands as a beacon of inspiration for young dancers everywhere—proving that talent, when nurtured with dedication and support, knows no boundaries.
