

Bir Chilarai Award Sainik School Goalpara student

Comments 0

Ranjan K Baruah 14 August 2012 16820 views

Debasish Sarma of Sainik School Goalpara has been selected to receive the prestigious 'Bir Chilarai Award' for the year 2012-13. He will receive the award from the Hon'ble Chief Minister of Assam on 15 Aug 2012 in the Independence Day central function to be held at Veterinary College Ground, Khanapara, Guwahati. Noteworthy to mention that Cadet Debasish Sarma has joined the prestigious National Defence Academy, Khadakwasla, Pune in Jul 2012. He is the third in the history of Sainik School Goalpara to receive this prestigious award who was the school captain in last academic session.

He had participated in the Republic Day Camp (RDC) at New Delhi in 2011 under National Cadet Corps and as a part of Youth Exchange Programme visited Bangladesh between 11- 22 Dec 2011. He was the only NCC cadet from the entire North Eastern Region to accomplish the feat . The school feels extremely proud of the achievement of the ingenuous and versatile Cadet who is a source of inspiration for all the cadets of SSG.

Ranjan K Baruah

Citizen Journalist and activist.

BY RANJAN K BARUAH

Lakes: The lifeblood of our planet

Humanitarian Workers Stand Up for People in Need

Different Contexts, Common Aspirations

MSME Day: Innovation key to building resilient businesses

International Day Against Drug Abuse: Innovation key to combating illicit drugs

ON THIS DAY

Assam Students Excel in Statewide Wildlife Conservation Competition

BSF gets more power

Barhoongkha lifts football trophy

Three arrested in Junu Sarma murder case

Wild jumbo kills two in Udalguri
