A two year old video clip showing conversation of Union home minister Rajnath Singh with NBBUSS president Soobodh Biswas on Assam's illegal settlers seems to have created no less controversy (/taxonomy/term/1752) across the state (/taxonomy/term/2332).

Biswas, the most wanted in the Silapothar clash alleged untold misery of the Hindu Bangladeshi immigrants in Assam.

He apprised Rajnath Singh, who was flanked by Nitin Gadkari (/taxonomy/term/2430) of the inhuman torture inflicted on the Hindu immigrants by the Assam government inside the detention camp.

But the allegations were totally brushed aside by the then government. This has once again proved Biswas' close association with the NDA government at the Centre.
