BJP clings to majority

AT News · 19:40, 19 May 2016 · 8104 views · 1 min read

BJP is preparing to form a coalition government in a day or two with the help of AGP and BPF.

The party tally has gone up to 60 till the final round of the counting where many Congress \(/taxonomy/term/90\) veterans and ministers \(/taxonomy/term/2422\) have been defeated. These include Pradyut Bordoloi, Sarat Borkotoky, Bishmita Gogoi.

AGP has improved its tally to 16 while BPF got \(/taxonomy/term/2005\)10 \(/taxonomy/term/2005\) seats. Congress \(/taxonomy/term/90\) had to remain satisfied with 24 seats. The formal announcement is awaited.

A visibly upset Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi (/taxonomy/term/2150) honours the verdict saying that its was the wish of the people.
