

Assam Times

assamtimes.org

LATEST NEWS

BJP wins Dhemaji by polls

AT News · 13:55, 13 Apr 2017 · 10498 views · 1 min read

BJP candidate Ranoj Pegu won the Dhemaji assembly by election defeating his nearest rival Congress (/taxonomy/term/90) candidate Babul (/taxonomy/term/2158) Sonowal by a margin of 9,253 votes on Thursday.

Pegu, for whom high profile party leaders (/taxonomy/term/2082) campaigned got around 69, 253 votes while despite low key campaign Congress (/taxonomy/term/90) candidate Babul (/taxonomy/term/2158) Sonowal pulled 60,000 votes.

When the BJP candidate took the final leader (/taxonomy/term/1820) the party leaders (/taxonomy/term/2082) and workers (/taxonomy/term/2406) started celebrating the victory. With drums and symbols, they started singing and dancing saying it a real occasion a day before the Rongali Bihu.

AT News

Assam Times Staff. editor@assamtimes.org

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/bjp-wins-dhemaji-by-polls-18834> | Published: 13 April 2017 | © 2026 Assam Times