A week long blood donation camp has been organized at Gauhati Medical College Hospital (GMCH) in Bhangagarh, Guwahati-32 from Friday. Initiated by the office of GMCH superintendent, the camp is open for every conscious and responsible citizens of Assam. Various civil society and other organizations have been invited to join and donate blood in the camp (8 May to 14 May 2015) during the working hours.

Media persons are also requested to attend the program and join in the mission to make the common people aware of the importance of blood domination.

Interested journalists and other media employees across the State are requested to contact Dr Ramen Talukder, the superintendent of GMCH (ph. 0361 2529457) for more details.
