Tension (/taxonomy/term/1032) seems to have mounted in Golaghat (/taxonomy/term/751) district along the Assam (/taxonomy/term/548)-Nagaland border (/taxonomy/term/665) where nine more (/taxonomy/term/669) bodies were found on Friday three days after the Naga (/taxonomy/term/741) miscreants (/taxonomy/term/851) attacked the local residents in Uriamghat (/taxonomy/term/1493).

Sources confirmed that all the local residents were killed (/taxonomy/term/839) in the recent indiscriminate firing and arson in eight villages.

Most of them were believed to have killed (/taxonomy/term/839) in arson when the miscreants (/taxonomy/term/851) torched at least 200 houses forcing over thousand people to leave their houses in Uriamghat (/taxonomy/term/1493) area.

Two (</taxonomy/term/1100>) persons succumbed to bullet wounds in Chetiagaon village on Tuesday.
